

HERSTORY & JAZZ COLLECTIVE

May 8 | 7–8:30 P.M.

Bridges of Love and Tragedy

A Transcendent Night of Poetry, Music
& More!

Poetry – Award-winning poet Maria James-Thiaw will showcase selections of new poetry, weaving a tale of love, tragedy and hope.

Music – A jazz ensemble led by drummer Mark Hunsberger will provide an evocative soundtrack that connects past, present and future.

Enjoy refreshments, mocktails & the intimate atmosphere of a NYC-style jazz club at the Capital BlueCross Theatre

Ticket information: Seating is intimate and limited!

Students $3; General Admission $10 (online fees apply)

<https://her-story-jazz.eventbrite.com>

NOTE: HERstory features original poetry that will appear in the Capital BlueCross Theatre's September production of Bridge (the gap), an all-new play created in conjunction with the Sankofa African American Theatre Company.

FOR MORE SHOW AND
AUDITION INFORMATION, VISIT:

Facebook: Capital BlueCross Theatre
at Central Penn College

CentralPenn.edu/theatre