Working Together for Equity and Justice

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSIONS: SUNDAY, JANUARY 1, 2023

(See submission details below.)

Project Prompt:

This year's theme, "Working Together for Equity and Justice," highlights the continued importance of uniting with one another in love for the sake of achieving equity and justice for all.

Create a project that explores, expresses, or illustrates this year's theme, taking into consideration your community (however you define it) as well as the greater life and work of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Some questions to consider might include:

- How did Dr. King's work seek to attain equity and justice?
- How would Dr. King define "equity"? How would Dr. King define "justice"? What do these concepts look like in practice? How can they be achieved through people working together?
- Where in your community do you already see evidence of individuals or groups working together to achieve equity and justice?
- Where in your community do you still see a need for people to work together to achieve equity and justice?
- How can you foster unity, equity, and justice within your community?

Possible Formats for Project Submissions:

- arts or performance arts projects
- whole-school or all-class initiatives, events, or projects
- social action/social justice projects
